

FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

Contact Information:

Michelle Morton, Director of Outreach and Education
Mental Health America of Greenville County
429 North Main Street Suite 2 Greenville SC 29601
864-467-3598

Mental Health America of Greenville County Presents Surviving and Thriving in Difficult Times

Mental Health America of Greenville County will host our Annual Meeting and Luncheon on Wednesday January 27, 2010 from 11:00am – 1:00pm. Surviving and Thriving in Difficult Times will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church in the Multi-Purpose Room located at 421 North Main Street in Downtown Greenville.

The keynote address “Surviving and Thriving in Difficult Times” will be given by Dr. Roger Rhoades, a frequent guest on Oprah, Montel Williams, and The View. Currently, Dr. Rhoades is a Senior Therapist at the PACE Center in Spartanburg. He has a Doctorate in Counseling, Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy and BA in Speech Communication. He has worked as lead clinician at the PACE Center since 1996 providing individual, group and family counseling.

A musical tribute will be provided by the Greenville Mental Health Center “Voices of Hope” Choir.

This event is open to the public and cost is 10.00 dollars, which includes lunch and a CEU certificate (1 hour). Please RSVP by January 26, 2010 at 467-3344. For more information call 864-467-3344, visit www.mhagc.org, or e-mail michelle.morton@mhagc.org

Mental Health America of Greenville County is one of over 320 affiliates of the national association created to promote mental wellness through advocacy, education and service.

www.mhagc.org